Bonfire and Lock-in Added to Events Calendar

The late night Crowd at Covenant had an event taylor made to their desires at the first semester. The CAB sponsored a lockin in order to take full advantage of the Student Senate's recent purchase of a big screen TV. They put on two movies - "The Wrath of Khan" and "Places in the Heart" and served plenty of pizza and cola.

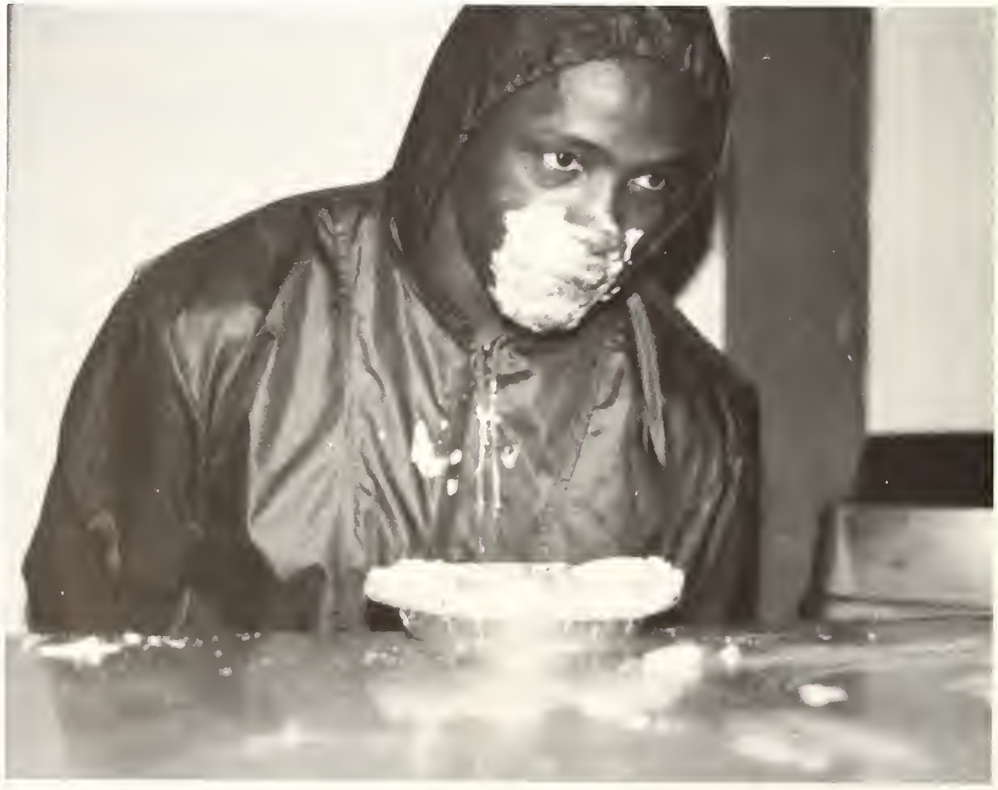
To those people that like to sit around a fire and sing songs, Student Development satisfied their tastes by having a bonfire. This event was held late in the first semester and took place after a basketball game. Wes King led the singing while students gathered around the fire, sang, sipped hot chocolate and ate doughnuts.

Social Committee Invades Mealtime

The Social Committee expanded the amount of activities it puts on by sponsoring two special dinners this year, one each semester. The first meal took place early in the first semester and was labelled an Hawaiian Dinner, while the second meal took place mid-second semester and was a Valentines Dinner. In each instance the Great Hall was decorated appropriately and the students were encouraged to dress according to the theme.

Fall Social Event Takes on Different Look

The Social Committee took advantage of the renovation of the lobby and organized the first "Fall Festival." With the carpet and furniture out of the lobby it was a perfect place to lay down some hay and have some good ole fashioned apple bobbing, pumpkin carving and pie eating contests. Other events at the festival consisted of pinata breaking, country music, a painted face contest and plenty of food. The Fall Festival was well attended and was considered by most to be a success.



Musical Performances Dominate Talent Show

The talent show this year was jointly sponsored by the Convenant College Bible Brothers and the Campus Activities Board. Most acts were musical in nature and ranged from solos, both instrumental and vocal, to group performances. Other acts consisted of comedy routines and more serious acts such as poetry reading.

The first place honors of the show went to the "Supremes" - made up of Kiki Taws, Ann Montgomery and Missy Aeschliman. Second place went to James Tuten's trumpet performance while third place went to Skip Allen as Peewee Herman.

Late Night Goes to New York?

"Late Night at Covenant" was gearing up for a fantastic show until a few days before the production a VCR and the famous "Late Night tapes" were stolen. These tapes stored the humorous accounts of their trip to New York City and their disappearance put a damper on the show. Despite this setback however, the show went on and the cast simply replaced the viewing of the tapes with other skits.

The show was co-hosted by Phil Bader and Hal Bowling and the Chosen Few Review consisted of Steve Smallman, Skip Allen, David Bird, Curt Martin, Allison Dubose and Chip Frazier.

Kilter Night - Old Style Picnic

The annual Kilter Night was held in the Great Hall and the theme of this girl ask guy event was a great big picnic. The girls brought picnic style dinners for themselves and their dates while the Social Committee provided drinks, ice cream and cotton candy. Entertainment was provided by a mens quartet, Jill Vandegriff and Dameron and Halvorsen on the drums and piano.

Faculty Takes Entertainment Into

The "Dameron and Jones World Tour", or "Jones and Dameron World Tour", whichever you prefer, took time out of its busy schedule to make a stop on our college campus. These two entertainers delighted the crowd by their humorous routines and witty folk songs.

Their Own Hands

The "Faculty Follies" were once again reinstated after being absent from the list of events for a couple of years. Evidently they once again saw a need for quality entertainment and decided to do it themselves. The talent displayed in the show spewed forth in abundance, especially in their fine musical abilities. Hopefully the Faculty Follies will remain a yearly event.

Patillo and Ward Head List of Performers

Leon Patillo Appears As White Heart Replacement

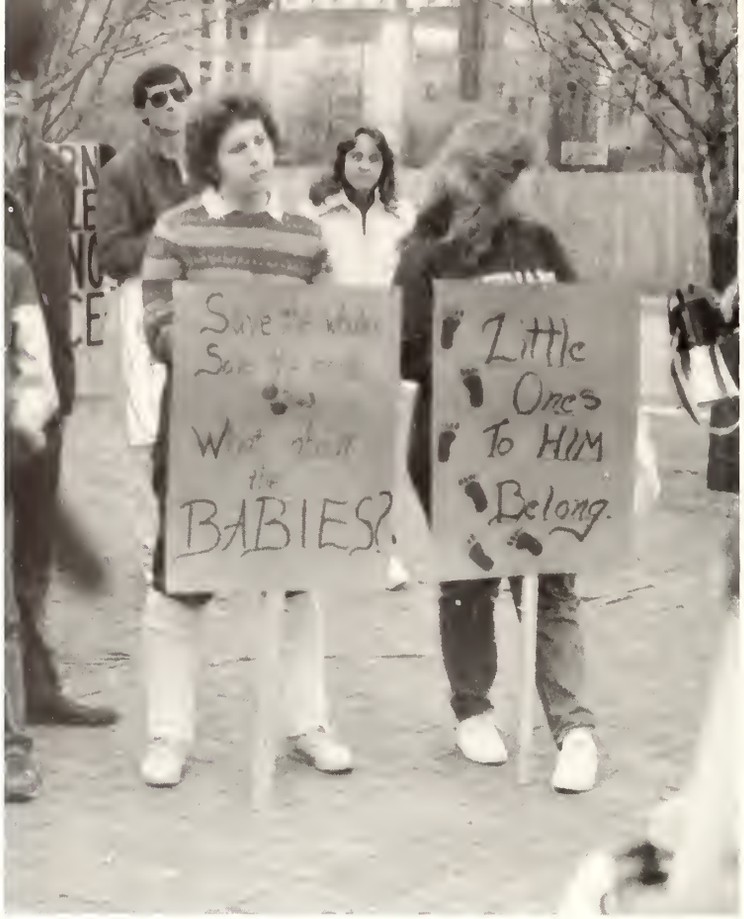
Ward and Band Still Rock The Hill

Rose Warnke and Stephen Lauren Bigger Add Concerts

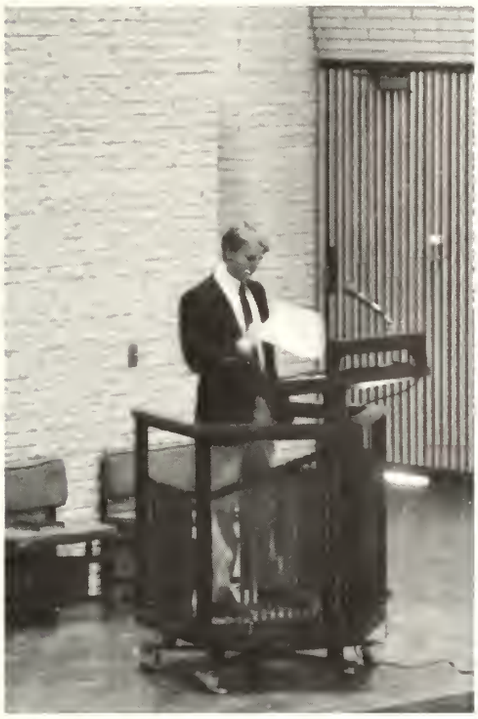
The Cultural and Academic Affairs Committee once again sponsored a fine arts week, yet they renamed the event "Arts Fest". The list of events of Arts Fest ranged from the "Spring Thistle" and other musical performances to the display of student art works.

Fine Arts Week Now "Arts Fest"

Covenant's Pro-Life Group Takes to the Streets



Members of the Covenant Community joined other Christians in the Chattanooga area to demonstrate against abortion. The demonstration came in the form of a march which ended in a rally led by Randy Neighbors.



Chapel '85-'86

Once again despite rumors of a change in the chapel program it has essentially remained the same. Chapel met every weekday with the only change in Monday's chapel which officially became a student chapel.

Parties Bring Students Together

Skating Party

The organization of a skating party by the Student Senate is slowly becoming a yearly event. The Senate once again rented the skating rink and opened it up to Covenant students at a reduced rate.

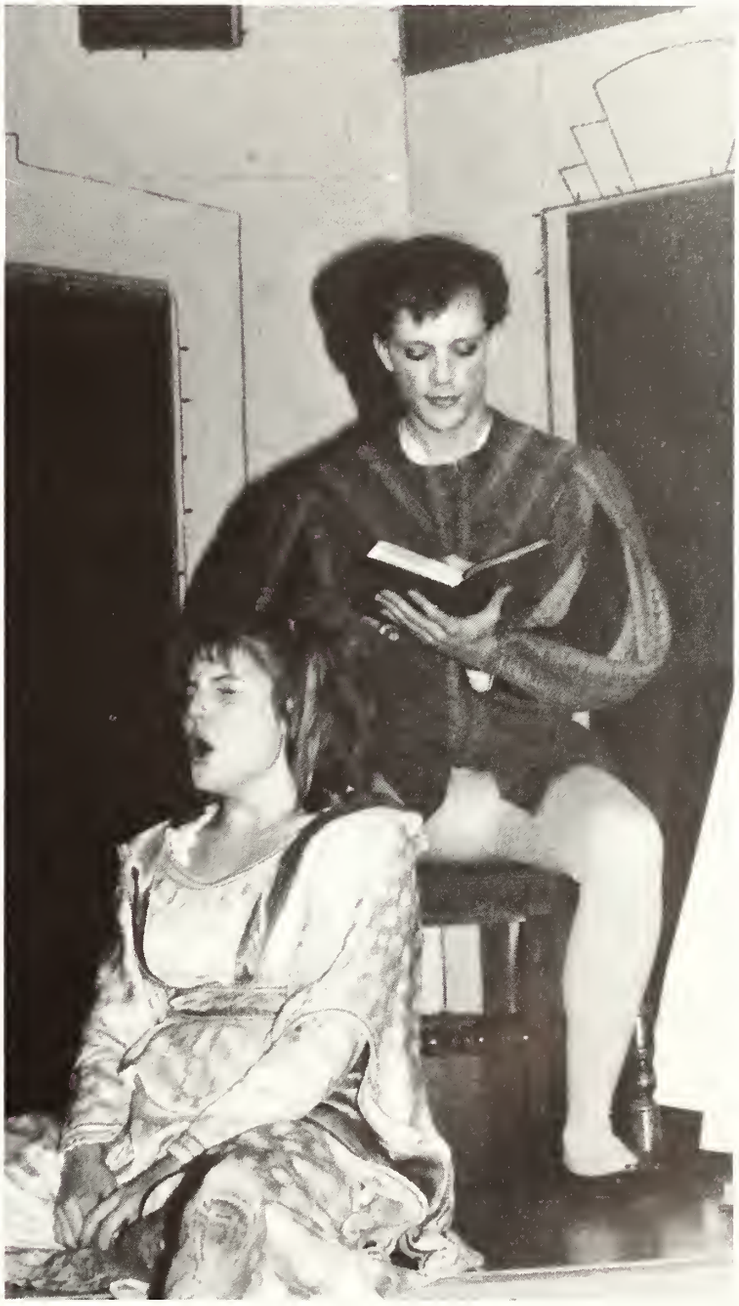
Freshman Class Parties

The Freshman Class had a chance to get together at two parties planned by their class officers. The first party was an ice cream social and bigger and better hunt, whereas the second one was a cookout at Cloudland Canyon.

Parker Directs Spring Musical

This year's play was unusual in the fact that it was not generated out of the drama club, but rather was one senior's idea for a SIP. Tim Parker broke away from the usual SIP paper and decided to direct the broadway comedy "Once Upon a Mattress". This turned out to be a double chore for him because not only did he direct and choreograph it, but he also held the male lead. The female lead was played by Olivia Weadon.

"Once Upon a Mattress"



Ye Olde Madrigal Feaste - A Christmas Tradition

The Music Department once again excelled at the Madrigal dinners which were held in the Great Hall on December fifth through December seventh. Presiding over this year's feast was the lord of the manor and his lady. Mr. and Mrs. James Wildeman. The Madrigal Singers included - Sopranos, Lisette Landry, Linda Persenaire, Jill Vandegriff. Olivia Weadon - Altos: Dottie Abercrombie, Gretchen Hamm. Miriam Long, Lisa Tabor - Tenors: Eric Beam, Steve Glass, Mike Sharp, Don Theune - Basses: Lowell Nilson, David Phillips and Randall Van Meggelen.

Spring Formal on Riverboat

In efforts to surpass the Spring Banquet at the Read House, the social committee started planning well in advance in order to reserve the Riverboat. Everyone who attended was treated to a buffet dinner and a dixie land band while the boat leisurely cruised down the Tennessee River.

Sports Banquet Honors Athletes

The Athletic Department once again took control of the Great Hall in order to host the 1986 Sports Banquet. This banquet provides an opportunity to honor those particular athletes that excelled at their individual sport.

Hodel Speaks at Board of Associates Dinner

Representatives of the faculty and students gathered with members of the Chattanooga community at the annual Board of Associates Dinner. The College was fortunate to have as speaker at this event the Secretary of the Interior Donald Hodel. Not only was Hodel an enjoyable speaker but he also brought media attention to our small and humble school.

Seniors Meet for Last Supper Together

The Senior class kept the tradition alive as they held their banquet on the Friday before graduation. Seniors and their guests gathered in the Great Hall for their last dinner together. As usual, entertainment at this gala event included musical numbers and several testimonies. Something special was added, however, as the floor was opened for Seniors to express their thoughts. After the banquet, the throng moved to the chapel for the Commencement Concert.

Men's Football
Pounders Do It Again

After edging out the now defunct Outcasts in order to win the 1984 CIFL title, the Pounders were picked as early favorites to win the 1985 title. They proved to be up to the task by enduring early threats of a young Wolverines team and the late surges of the Remains and Ghetto Blasters. The Pounders capped off a perfect 10-0 season by defeating the Ghetto Blasters in the championship game. Pictured below are the 1985 Pounders. Front Row: Jim Baxter, Richard Russell, John Lovelady, Kevin Baldwin, Tim Baum. Back Row: Paul Davis, Rick Reinink, Doug Gill, Eddie Salter, John Lothers, Kevin Whitmore.

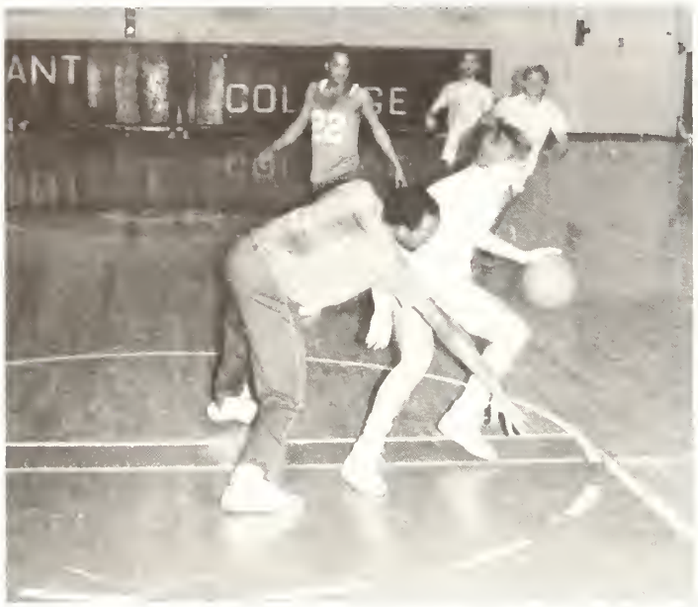
Women's Football

Dunahoo's Team Takes Championship

Although somewhat of a lackluster season because of the many rain delays and mud games, John Dunahoo's team proved to have what it takes as they outlasted the competition in order to win the championship. That title was determined in the championship game between Dunahoo's team and the Mountain Air Heads in which Dunahoo's team emerged victorious. The championship team consisted of Coach John Dunahoo, Libby Aeschliman, Missy Aeschliman, Bonnie McDougall, Hella Crowe, Holly Kirms, Anna Vannoy and Holly Edminton.

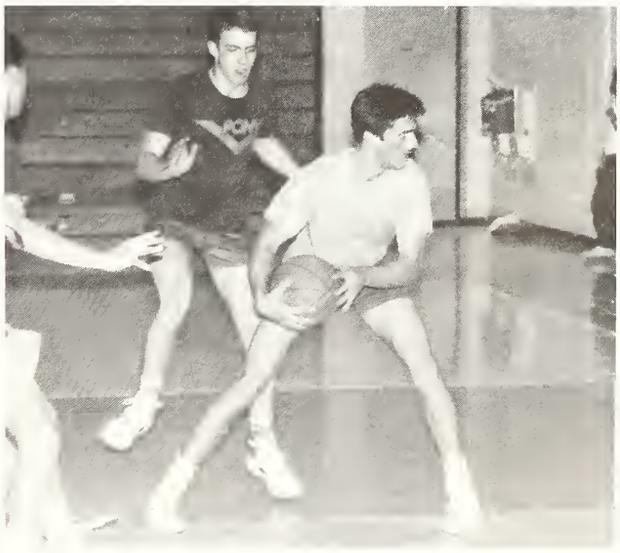
A League
Carolina Comes From Behind

Despite being ranked third entering into the playoffs, behind the Icemen and Bricklayers, Carolina played well in the tournament in order to win the A League title. Carolina edged out the Bricklayers in the semi-finals and upset the Icemen in the championship game. Members of the champion Carolina squad include Jim Coogler, Arny Arnold, Dean Arnold, Keff Beasely, Mike Weirsma, Todd Smith and Dave Fortosis.



B League
Supreme Court Prove Themselves

Going into the playoffs in B League, it was a battle between three teams: the Supreme Court, the Thundercats and the Wolverines. The Thunder cats were first to fall while the Wolverines and Supreme Court met in the championship game. In this match up, the Supreme Court would prove to be too much for the men of Second Belz as they took the B League title. Pictured below are: Tim VanVoorhis, Curt Gill, Greg Alexander, Richard Russell, John Forrester, Dave Vila and Matt Phillips.



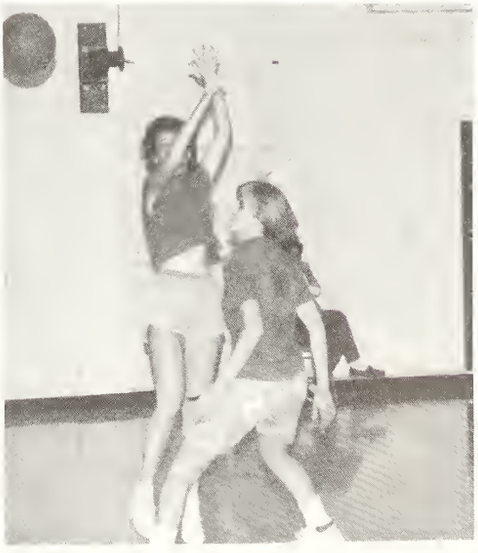
C League
Supposed Confession Surprises Everybody

Going into tournament play it was the Bermudas that held the advantage yet it was a surprising Supposed Confessions team that came from the middle of the pack to win the C league title. Supposed Confession played an incredible tournament and defeated the odds on favorite Bermudas in the championship game. Members of Supposed Confession were John Bates, Shane Shaarda, Ralph Kelly, Pete Baitey, Tom Cantrell, Jeff Pregg, Jeff Clumpner and Benson Morris.

Womens League

Alums and Bums Romp

There is not much to say about the Womens League because the Alums and Bums took care of everybody in route to a serfect season. The Alums and Bums led by Tammy Smialek defeated the Penguins in the championship game in order to cap off a perfect 11-0 season.



Seniors Prove Superiority in Class Soccer

The class of '86 had something to prove this year because of nagging defeats to the class of '85 in last year's season. Well, this year's senior class came prepared to lay to rest any doubts of their claim to the number one spot as they went on their way to a perfect season.

Women's Indoor Goes Down to the Wire

The Women's Indoor Soccer season was extremely competitive this year as the championship team emerged from tournament play. Although Margaret Toothman's team finished first in the regular season, they were upset in the championship game by Holy Kirms' team. The championship team was coached by Bob Strickland and included Holly Kirms, Anna Vannoy, Bonnie McDougal, Hella Crowe, Kathy Pierce, Holly Edminton, Bonnie Brown and Amy Kursch.

Gill Clan Excels in Co-Ed Sports

Volleyball

In the competitive league in volleyball, the Delaware Destroyers (Gill Clan) survived some early defeats and came on strong in the end in order to have the best record and in order to obtain the mythical championship. The female members of the team included Sarah Snyder, Mari Lajara, Kristin Baker, and Donna Bowling. The male members included none other than Doug Gill, Rick Reinink, Jim Baxter and Steve Barker.

Softball

The final sport of the intramural season was softball and was held in tournament style on the last weekend before exams. In the double elimination tournament the Delaware Destroyers (Gill Clan) kept their two year perfect record alive by defeating the Catacombs Clan. Members of the Gill Clan softball team include: female members - Meg Tessitore, Donna Bowling, Kristin Baker, Bonnie McDougall and Kathy Pierce. Male members include the one and only Doug Gill, his brother Curt, Rick "Bottle Rocket" Reinink, Craig "I Love Softball" Davis, Richard "Where Am I" Engle and John "Mr. Pres." Dunahoo.

1986 Commencement

The thirty-first annual Commencement exercises were held in front of the chapel on May 10, 1986. This graduation exercise was special in the fact that it was held outside, due to the fact the chapel was too small to hold the parents and friends of the graduating class, and that it marked the first graduation of the Quest Students. These Quest Students, all receiving a degree in Organizational Behaviour, added thirty five graduates to the class of 1986.

Speaking at the graduation was Dr. James Kennedy of "Evangelism Explosion" and giving the charge to the graduates was Professor Graham. Also, at the end of the Commencement program, Rev. Glen Knecht was awarded an honorary degree.
